Seconds grab pennant

Steve Pascoe — nine-wicket haul in the finals.

John Sharman, who led Warrandyte Cricket Club out of a "recession" this season, will be back in 1991-92 to build on the strong foundations he has laid.

Sharman's reappointment for a second term as captain-coach is a formality.

A former District cricketer with Waverley, Sharman has produced big improvement at Warrandyte and saw four of the six men's teams into the finals.

The reward for his work was a premiership for the second eleven.

"When we picked up John Sharman we picked up a real winner," WCC president Mark Davis told the Diary. "He plays to win and he has instilled that attitude in the players."

"The season was better than we had expected and we can certainly build on what has been achieved."

The seconds' premiership was highlighted by some outstanding individual performances.

Mick English and Steve Pascoe combined to destroy Norwood in the semi-final, returning bowling figures of 5/50 and 4/44 respectively. The Dytes coasted to 3/126 in reply to Norwood's total of 123.

Ben Brisbane was Warrandyte's hero with the bat in the grand final against Ainslie Park, hitting a magnificent 120. He had fine support from Jason Graf (45) and Andy King (41).

The Dytes closed at 9/312 and again Pascoe was in devastating form with the ball, capturing 5/75 as Ainslie Park were dismissed for 269.

The first eleven, which had come from down the ladder to make the finals, were well beaten by North Croydon in their semi-final, Andrew Hood top-scoring with 74 in Warrandyte's total of 176.

The thirds lost to Croydon United by seven wickets and the fifths could muster only 79 runs against Ainslie Park.

Details:

FIRSTS: Semi-final — Warrandyte 176 (Hood 74) lost to North Croydon 249.

SECONDS: Semi-final — Warrandyte 3/126 d Norwood 123 (English 5/50, Pascoe 4/44). Grand final — Warrandyte 9/312 (B. Brisbane 120, Graf 45, King 41) d Ainslie Park 269 (Pascoe 5/75).

THIRDS: Semi-final — Warrandyte 188 (D. Vitiritti 44, G. Brisbane 45) lost to Croydon United 3/189.

FIFTHS: Warrandyte 79 lost to Ainslie Park 202 and 302 (Watts 8/108).

Rocking for Madge

Local band Alley Oop will donate its services next month to the appeal for crippled former Warrandyte footballer Gary (Madge) Allsop.

Alley Oop, led by Greg Egglestone, will perform free of charge at a rock night at the recreation reserve pavilion on May 25.

Proceeds will go towards building a room for Allsop, who is living with his parents at Blackburn.

Admission to the night is $5 and drinks will be available at bar prices. Strict control will be kept on the sale of drinks to young people.

Karina's on the move

The perseverance and dedication of young Warrandyte athlete Karina Reid have been rewarded with an overseas trip.

Karina, a Year 10 student at Warrandyte High, has been a member of Doncaster Little Athletics Club for nine years and was a placegetter in the 800 and 1500 metres in this year's Victorian titles.

She was one of 40 young athletes chosen to represent Australia in competition in the United States over Easter.

"We are very proud of Karina and the determination she has shown to achieve excellence in athletics," a school spokesman told the Diary.

Cricket premiers feted

The premiership performance of Warrandyte Cricket Club's second eleven was recognised by Doncaster and Templestowe City Council this month.

The mayor, councillor John Bridge, presented captain Brett Kline and his team with certificates in recognition of their outstanding achievement in taking the Chandler Shield seconds pennant.

Cr Bridge made the presentations at a special ceremony in the council chamber after a dinner for the players with councillors and council officers.

Warrandyte Cricket Club president Mark Davis said that despite the loss of one or two players to higher competition the club was looking forward to a stronger showing in all grades in the 1991-92 season.

"The seconds have shown us all what can be done with a bit of the old 'G and D', and if the rest of the sides follow their example, we can all look forward to a much better season," he said.

Warrandyte showed considerable improvement under new captain-coach John Sharman last season, with four of the six senior sides making the RDCA finals.

Training for the new season will start next month.
