Bloods bring it home

31-year drought officially over

By RYAN HOIBERG

WARRANDYTE Cricket Club has won the first Premier Grade flag in over 31 years, with Warrandyte's First XI scraping over the line against Kilsyth Cricket Club in a final for the ages.

While most of the squad for the final, including captain Chris Barry (24) and club coach Jake Sherriff (24), were not born the last time the club won a First XI flag in 1983/84, the magnitude of the achievement was not lost among the team and the crowd. Grown men openly celebrated with tears in their eyes at the Montrose Cricket Ground, after victory was achieved due to a seemingly irrelevant wide off what would be the final ball of the day.

The weight of history was on the shoulders of the young team, with all at the game aware of Warrandyte's recent history in grand finals. Fans recall the 1993/94 impossible reverse outright defeat, with the Warrandyte Diary running the headline "Warrandyte snatches defeat from the jaws of victory". There was the brutal 2003/04 defeat where two Warrandyte players had their jaws broken, and back to back losses in 2009/2010 and 2010/11.

These results were carried on the backs of 11 gentlemen at Montrose in their face-off with Kilsyth Cricket Club. Warrandyte had defeated Kilsyth two weeks prior and had finished 20 points clear of them during the season, but it mattered for nothing as soon as Sherriff bowled the first ball.

Finals history suggested that Warrandyte shouldn't bowl first and when Barry lost the toss, the whispers and long looks started. Tenston among the 100 strong squad that had come to support was palpable with all aware of the stakes.

The first wicket came from a run out, with Barry leading from the front in the field after a tight first few overs from Sherriff and Campbell Holland. Sherriff would take the first of his five wicket haul soon after, but Kilsyth slowly found their feet and put together a strong third wicket partnership. If not for the acrobatics of Ayrton Dehmel in at short leg under the helmet, they may have mounted the charge.

Dehmel plucked one that would sit well in any of Channel 9's "classic catches" to dismiss the Kilsyth captain, and Holland (1/27) would take the other shortly after. At 4/65, Warrandyte were well poised, but endured a battle for the next wicket. Barry (1/15) would take the ball himself and provide the inspiration.

Kilsyth continued to fight, however, and bowling changes incorporating Daniel Barry (0/5), Luke Killey (0/22) and Ayrton Dehmel (0/25) were unable to make headway. However, Justin Cleaves (2/2) would provide an unlikely wicket at fifth change and Sherriff (5/46) would remind everyone why he was the premier cricketer of the competition. Sherriff ferociously attacked the tail and, despite late hitting, helped the Bloods bowl Kilsyth out in the 75th over for 179.

Day 2 and the equation was simple. A draw and Warrandyte would have its first flag in 31 years. Furthermore, they would be in the top flight for the first time in 15 years since the competition was restructured.

Warrandyte started poorly, losing Dehmel (0) and club president Ben Taylor (8) early to sit at 2/13. Chris Barry (7) and Cleaves (12) steadied the nerves, but both fell in quick succession and Warrandyte was 4/42 as stomachs started sinking across the ground.

A crowd of approximately 900 people gathered from across the competition and most would have doubted Warrandyte. In fact, no one was prepared for the partnership Sherriff (44) and Matthew Gamble (62) had.

Gamble had been dropped from the squad following Christmas, after an up and down season, but strong performances in the Second XI led to a recall. Certainly, all who have seen his ferocious pull shot would not question his selection. The pair guided the team through to tea and beyond, posting a 105-run partnership, and with Warrandyte at 4/147 the crowd started smiling. However, in true Warrandyte fashion it wasn't so simple. Both batters departed and Kilsyth suddenly had a sniff at 6/151 with 28 still needed.

Next in was Mooney, a member of the unsuccessful 1993/94 campaign and one who bleeds Red & White for Warrandyte. Personally chasing success for over 23 years, the player serves as an individual inspiration to the eleven and would remain until the end (8 not out). D Barry (4) and Styles (0) departed in the same over and suddenly Warrandyte was 8/160 needing 19 runs with only two wickets in hand.

The atmosphere was incredible, with spectators waiting with baited breath on every ball. In the end, Warrandyte drew level with four byes down the leg side to claim the title. After Holland fell with the scores level, it was 17-year-old Luke Killey (0) on strike when the umpire held both arms out to indicate the winning wide. Mooney and Killey met in the middle for a celebration hug before being mobbed by the rest of the team.

Jake Sherriff topped off his man of the match performance in the qualifying final against Kilsyth with a man of the match performance in the grand final. Barry, showing maturity beyond his years, ensured that the club knew just how important the win was, giving the spare three medals to club legends and volunteers Anne Pascoe, Gerald Walshe and Graham "Twinks" Lawrence.

The entire community should be proud of the legacy that the cricket club is creating. In a World Cup year, nothing will top the mighty Bloods taking home the flag. Let us all hope it won't be another 31-year wait.
