Est. 1855 Affiliated with the Ringwood District Cricket Association (RDCA) since 1977. 1st XI Premierships 1906/07, 1920/21, 1936/37, 1939/40, 1947/48, 1956/57, 1979/80, 1981/82, 1983/84 & 2014/2015.

When using social media, the lines between public and private, personal and professional, may be blurred. Remember, you are an ambassador for Warrandyte Cricket Club.

Protecting your privacy

Be smart about protecting yourself and your privacy.

When posting content online there is potential for that content to become publicly available through a variety of means, even if it was intended to be shared privately. Therefore, you should refrain from posting any content online that you would not be happy for anyone to see, even if you feel confident that a particular individual would never see it.

Where possible, privacy settings on social media platforms should be set to limit access. You should also be cautious about disclosing your personal details.

Honesty

Your honesty—or dishonesty—may be quickly noticed in the social media environment. Do not say anything that is dishonest, untrue or misleading. If you are unsure, check the source and the facts before uploading or posting anything. Warrandyte Cricket Club recommends erring on the side of caution – if in doubt, do not post or upload.

Do not post anonymously, using pseudonyms or false screen names. Be transparent and honest. Use your real name, be clear about who you are and identify any affiliations you have.

If you have a vested interest in something you are discussing, point it out. If you make an endorsement or recommendation about something you are affiliated with, or have a close relationship with, you must disclose that affiliation.

The web is not anonymous. You should assume that all information posted online can be traced back to you. You are accountable for your actions both on and offline, including the information you post via your personal social media accounts.

Wherever practical, include a prominent disclaimer stating who you work for or are affiliated with (e.g. member of Warrandyte Cricket Club) and that anything you publish is your personal opinion and that you are not speaking officially. This is good practice and is encouraged, but don't count on it to avoid trouble — it may not have legal effect.

Respect confidentiality and sensitivity

When using social media, you must maintain the privacy of Warrandyte Cricket Club's confidential information. This includes information that is not publically accessible, widely known, or not expected to be shared outside of the Warrandyte Cricket Club.

Remember, if you are online, you are on the record—much of the content posted online is public and searchable.

Within the scope of your authorisation by Warrandyte Cricket Club, it is perfectly acceptable to talk about Warrandyte Cricket Club and have a dialogue with the community, but it is not okay to publish confidential information of the Warrandyte Cricket Club. Confidential information includes things such as details about litigation and unpublished details about our team, coaching practices, financial information and personal information of players.

When using social media you should be considerate to others and should not post information when you have been asked not to, or where consent has not been sought and given. You must also remove information about another person if that person asks you to do so.

Permission should always be sought if the use or publication of information is not incidental, but directly related to an individual. This is particularly relevant to publishing any information regarding minors. In such circumstances, parental or guardian consent is mandatory.

You must obtain express permission from an individual to use a direct, clearly identifiable image of that person.

You should also refrain from posting any information or photos of a sensitive nature. This could include accidents, incidents or controversial behaviour.
